Our trainees have said...

The course is challenging, and more so than you can really appreciate before you actually do it, but it's meeting the challenge that gives you the confidence to go out and teach once you've qualified. After all, an easier course wouldn't provide the training you need in order to function as a teacher. What's more, no matter how tough it gets, no matter how daunting the workload, the staff at TEFL London are always there to support you, no matter how busy they themselves may be. They ensure that the environment there is one in which encouragement and useful advice are never hard to come by. You'll be drained by the end of it, but that's the mark of a rewarding experience.

Gwilym

TEFL London was a really challenging yet immensely rewarding course. I learnt not only how to teach but many other valuable life skills. I highly recommend the course and feel very fortunate to have been taught by such fantastic trainers.
